

Home

About Council -

Governance and transparency -

2016 Melbourne
City Council
elections -

About Council
elections

Enrolling to vote +

Key information about the City of Melbourne

Standing for election +

Contact information

Accessing council
information +

Acts and local laws +

Policies and protocols +

Grants and sponsorships

How our strategies
and plans fit
together

Submissions on key issues

Open Data

Draft plans and strategies

2016 Melbourne City Council elections

Council elections will be held across Victoria in October 2016. Find out about the election process, whether you're eligible to vote and how the voters' roll is compiled.

Popular pages

Getting on the voters' roll

Who can vote?

Failure to vote

Contact information

How the voters' roll is compiled

Key information about the City of Melbourne

Am I eligible to nominate as a candidate?

Multiple entitlements to vote

Featured pages

Who can vote?

Find out who is entitled to vote

Key dates and resources for prospective candidates

Find details of information sessions and key election dates

Getting on the voters' roll

Access application forms and information about getting enrolled

Contact information

Contact us or the Victorian Electoral Commission for queries

Failure to vote

Learn about the penalties for not voting and related legislation

Election Period Policy (Caretaker Policy)

Read our policy to ensure elections are conducted fairly

In this section

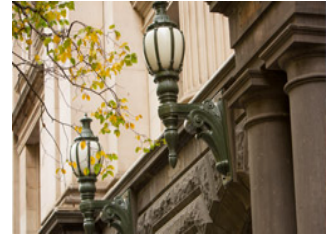

About Council elections

Enrolling to vote

Key information about the City of Standing for election